

A thank you to Aurora's mystery Easter artists

I just wanted to thank the people and children who took the time to create a delightful "Walk of Quotes" on Whispering Pines this past Easter weekend: lovely, uplifting words of wisdom and humour spaced all along the sidewalk.

I discovered them on Sunday, and stopped to read and admire each one. In particular, a very good drawing of our beautiful blue planet was appreciated and photographed by the family ahead of me.

Thank you, it was a real treat to stumble upon!
