

Artist charts volunteerism at Aurora Senior P.S. in new book

Aurora Senior Public School and George Street Public School might be moving forward together under their new banner when the next school year starts in September, but artist Deborah Campo, a long-time volunteer at Aurora Senior has captured a brief history of her time at the school, so far, in her new book, ?The Adventures of Miss Wally Wall.?

Published this spring, Ms. Campo will host a book signing this Saturday, April 18 at 4 p.m. at Bonsai Hill (northeast corner of Yonge and Wellington).
