

In Pictures: 1,200 kids take part in annual Easter Egg Hunt

Photos by David Falconer

INTO THE WOODS -- The Easter Bunny found clever locations to hide the eggs in the Aurora Community Arboretum

Kids had a cracking good time getting in the picture.

Face Painting was the order of the day inside the Seniors' Centre.

Youngsters had the chance to cuddle up to some newborn baby chicks, hatched earlier that week.

For the first time this year, historic Petch House was the arts and crafts headquarters.

After a busy morning finding eggs, kids and their families could take part in a pancake brunch served up by the Optimist Club of Aurora.